

Ethics at Work

1 day

Ethics are standards that guide behaviour. The world of business is getting more and more complex. This means you are likely to face many ethical problems during your work life. In this course, you'll learn how to solve ethical dilemmas and structure your thinking when faced with tough situations. You'll also gain an understanding on international laws relating to business ethics.

What you'll learn to do in this course

You'll come out of this session with powerful tools for making ethical decisions and behaving in ways that support ethical business practices. We'll bring theory to life and tell you how to succeed. A range of practical tips will be presented to you. You'll talk through examples and enjoy practical exercises. At the end of the course, you should be able to:

- Discuss why business ethics matter
- Distinguish between ethics, morals and integrity
- Recognise ethical dilemmas
- Use the Six Lenses model to create a course of action
- Design options using an Option Generator
- Resolve conflicts over ethical issues
- Respond to inappropriate workplace behaviour.

Topics you'll cover

- What are ethics?
- Resolving ethical dilemmas
- Frames for ethical decision making
- International law and ethics
- Handling conflicts over ethical issues.
